DR. STRYKER INJURED

On Wednesday afternoon, upon leaving for New York to address a political meeting, Dr. Stryker met with a painful accident, near his home on College Hill, as he entered the buggy. A large white parcel, which he carried, terrified the horse, which ran amuck into the yard of Mr. Powell, overturning the rig and throwing out the occupants. Dr. Stryker fell against a tree trunk, sustaining a slight concussion of the brain. He was unconscious thruout the afternoon, with intervals of delirium, and passed a very uncomfortable night, but was reported out of danger on Thursday. The driver of the buggy sustained a broken nose and three fractured ribs. Dr. Stryker's fine physical condition favors a rapid convalescence; in view of the nature of the accident his escape from more serious consequences seems well-nigh providential.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Mr. John A. Safford, former Student State Secretary, will meet the Cabinet on Saturday evening at 7. Much depends upon this meeting. Mr. Safford will also address the regular Sunday afternoon meeting.

"Mormonism" is the subject of discussion for the class on Comparative Religions. The class meets at 3 in Silliman Hall. Last Sunday afternoon, Martin, '11, who lives in Utah, gave a very able presentation of the fundamental doctrines of the Mormons. The classes get more interesting each Sunday, and more men should avail themselves of so helpful a seminar. The Freshmen also report an increasing attractiveness in their study of the "Life of Christ." They meet at 3 o'clock.

Those who have been working among the Italian boys in Utica report progress. The movement is still in infancy. It will tax the patience and require the cooperation of all interested. Suggestions will be thankfully received. Here is an opportunity for any willing worker.

It is gratifying to the association to be able to say that other practical work is being done. Colson, '11, is meeting with so great success in his Sunday School work in a near-by country school house that Clarke '12 will assist him. Robinson '11 is conducting evening meetings in Kirkland. Stube '10 is supplying needy pulpits as application comes to him. Twice within the past week the association has sent out a Quartette to assist in social entertainments. Two of the down-town church choirs receive regular aid from our basses and tenors.

R. P. I. GAME

Last Saturday afternoon the 'Varsity sustained its fifth consecutive defeat for this season. Rensselaer was represented by a strong, fast team, which literally played the Buff and Blue men off their feet. The backfield of the Troy team is one of the best the 'Varsity has encountered this year. Excellent interference and ability to follow interference marked the team work of the visitors. Individually their backs showed skill in running a broken field and keeping their feet.

Hamilton displayed a lamentable inability to tackle low and hard. As in previous games, fumbles prevented almost certain scoring. In most instances end runs were spoiled by the R. P. I. men breaking them before the play was well started. Capt. Thomas and Sidle played the best games for Hamilton.

About 30 representatives of Colgate University assembled in the bleachers previous to the kick-off. Exchange of yells with them was frequent during the game. Their courtesy in standing while the College sang "Carissima" between the halves was the subject of favorable comment.

From the start the game was hard and fast. Frequent substitutions were necessary owing to minor injuries. Unfortunately there were several exhibitions of bad blood between the opposing players. As a result two men from each team were disqualified for the remainder of the game. The side line support was excellent. In the face of a defeat, which was hardly expected, the Hamilton men kept up a continual round of cheering and songs. After the game the College assembled outside the Gym., cheering the team individually and collectively. That Hamilton spirit which can smile in the face of defeat was much in evidence.

The game in detail:

Capt. Geiger won the toss. Drummond kicked off to R. P. I.'s 10-yard line. The ball was brought back 15 yards, so R. P. I. punted 25 yards to Harper. Welch made a fine end run of 30 yards on the next play. R. P. I. received a 5-yard penalty for offside play. Sidle made 2 yards thru the line and Getman added 5. A touchdown seemed near, but the Troy men held for downs. R. P. I. gained 15 yards on an end run and on the next three plays covered 20 more. Inglis got away on an end play for 30 yards, but was brought down by Sidle. A forward pass brought some gain. R.

P. I. was penalized for rough work in the line. Shankey was stopped on an end run by Sidle with a pretty tackle. Rensselaer failed to drop kick a goal, Harper securing the ball. Clark substituted Drummond at this juncture. Leavenworth gained 12 yards and made 5 more on a forward pass the following play. Line bucks failed to cover sufficient ground. Hamilton punted to the centre of the field. R. P. I. gained a little on line plays. The forward pass failed, the ball going to Hamilton. Harper gained 5 yards on a quarterback run. Welch made 10 more around end. Hamilton was penalized 15 yards for holding. Leavenworth gained 5 yards. On next play Hamilton punted to Rensselaer's 35-yard line. After some small gains thru the line, R. P. I. was held for downs. A forward pass to Leavenworth counted for 9 yards. Getman and Glover each advanced the ball 3 yards in the two plays following. With the ball nearing R. P. I.'s goal line, a forward pass failed and Hamilton lost the ball. Rensselaer gained consistently thru the line for several downs. Inglis on an end play ran 40 yards for a touchdown. R. P. I. failed to kick the goal. Score, R. P. I. 5, Hamilton 0.

Welch kicked off to Summers, who came back 20 yards. Successive line plunges advanced the ball well up the field. A long end run thru a broken field brought the ball to Hamilton's 1-yard line.

The first attempt to carry the ball over resulted in no gain. On the next Summers was shoved over for the second touchdown. No goal. Score, R. P. I. 10, Hamilton 0.

Hamilton kciked to R. P. I.'s 15-yard line. Ball was returned 10 yards. Baldwin was hurt and Wheeler substituted. R. P. I. gained 7 thru the line and 10 more around end. Penalty of 15 yards on R. P. I. for unsportsmanlike conduct. Sidle was obliged to leave the game at this point because of injuries. Jones took his place. Rensselaer punted, the ball going out of bounds. Jones gained 5 yards. R. P. I. secured the ball on an interrupted forward pass. Hamilton held for downs. After two plays Wheeler punted. R. P. I.'s fullback was thrown for a loss, but gained 9 yards on the next line up. The whistle blew for time, with the ball in the centre of the field in R. P. I.'s possession. Score, R. P. I. 10, Hamilton 0.

Mitchell replaced Getman at full in the second half. R. P. I. kicked to Hamilton's 15-yard line. The Buff and Blue made 6 yards on line plays and cut off 20 more on end runs in a few downs. R. P. I. held in the middle of the field. R. P. I. fumbled, but recovered the ball, thus making first down. Failed to gain on next play, Capt. Thomas breaking thru the line. R. P. I. penalized for offside play. Next two plays netted 7 yards. R. P. I. punted to Harper on Hamilton's 40-yard line. Hamilton almost immediately lost the ball on downs. R. P. I. gained consistently thru Hamilton's line and on close end runs to the 3-yard line. Here Hamilton held for a moment, but a line plunge carried the ball over. No goal. Score, R. P. I. 15, Hamilton 0.

Leavenworth's '09 replaced Roenke at end. Wheeler kicked to R. P. I.'s 20-yard line. Ball was returned 10 yards. R. P. I. was penalized 15 yards for holding and made no gain on the next play. The ball passed for a punt went too high and rolled nearly to the goal line. Hamilton's ball on R. P. I.'s 1-yard line. On the first play the ball was fumbled and R. P. I. covered it. In a few downs Rensselaer carried the play well toward neutral territory. Jones intercepted a forward pass. Welch gained 10 yards on a forward pass. R. P. I. secured the ball on downs. Marriott substituted Welch, who wrenched an arm. R. P. I. gained 20 yards around end. Wagner made 8 thru the line. Mitchell dropped him with a pretty tackle. Summers and Wisehart were disqualified at this point. Thomas substituted Wisehart. R. P. I. received 15-yard penalty. On a try for a goal by drop kicking, the ball went but little outside the posts. Hamilton kicked out from the 25-yard line. R. P. I. gained back to the 30-yard line. Thompson substituted Clark. Again Bornefeld attempted to drop kick a goal, but failed. Wheeler kicked out from the 25-yard line. R. P. I. failed to gain with line plays, the ball going to Hamilton. Harper gained 20 yards on an end run, but was thrown for a loss on the next play. R. P. I. interrupted a forward pass. Time called with the ball in R. P. I.'s possession on Hamilton's 40-yard line.

LIFE EXTENDS TO THE FAMILY OF Dr. Stryker the sincere sympathy of the College Body over the unhappy accident Wednesday. LIFE also extends to the College Body and Hamilton Alumni hearty congratulations over the happy escape of their President from fatal injuries. The numerous telegrams, and affectionate interest attest as nothing else, the place that Dr. Stryker holds in the hearts of the College. For years he has followed an executive policy, the excellence of which only far-sighted men have appreciated. Now however the realization that all his work has been to build a foundation which will carry the College into even higher status, is being grasped by Hamilton men more and more clearly. The fruits of this policy have begun to materialize. We are thankful that the man has been saved to learn how well he has builded. We are thankful that the College may still have as the guardian of her welfare, a man whose efficiency is as far beyond question as his loyalty.

WE MAY DEFEAT RUTGERS today and we may not. Tho the probability is of the former, THAT is not the question. "Colgate!" is the batle-cry from now on. Colgate decides the success or failure of this season! Defeat Colgate and we have accomplished everything. This we can do and we say it out of no blind persistence of optimism. We have faith that the men of Hamilton will out-do themselves at the sight of the magic maroon. To gain that last inch has been the trouble this season.. We assert that we will not only gain that last inch, but many more under the stimulus of our down-valley rivals. Remember the last Baseball game!

Sadly LIFE feels less sanguine concerning the Student Body. Yet there is no reason for lack of grit in this direction. Let us try to make the last two weeks a record-breaking spurt. Only six days to make up for all the season's deficiency! TUESDAY, and THURSDAY and FRIDAY are the days and let the Hamilton undergraduate system prove its merit by having EVERY man on the side lines, on EVERY one of these dates. That is ONE alternative, to confess the death of Hamilton Spirit is the OTHER.

IT HAS BEEN ESPECIALLY noticeable of late that the Freshmen have been very backward in saying "Hello!" to the other members of the College whom they have chanced to meet. Nothing is noticed so quickly or so condemned as this same fault. By this time, certainly, the Freshmen should know every man in College, if not by name, at least by appearance. It is the place of the Freshmen to speak first, and this they should be very careful to do. Don't be afraid to give the good Hamilton greeting to the other members of the College! It all makes for the strengthening of that democratic spirit, of which we are so justly proud.

To the Editor of LIFE:

Dear Sir: In behalf of the Lit, may I announce thru your columns a prize competition. All members of the College-body who subscribe to the Monthly, with the exception of the Board and the Senior Class, are eligible. There will be two prizes of $15 and $10 for the two best essays submitted on any of the following subjects:

I. The Historicity of Thackeray's Waterloo.

II. The Best Play by Bernard Shaw; An Appreciation.

III. Stevenson, the Vagabond.

IV. Northauger Abbey; an Appreciation of Its Humor.

Of these, the Lit Board will act as judges; the papers, which may range from 1,500 to 2,500 words, must be folioed and passed to some member of the Board prior to Jan. 20.

The Board has hoped by this means to stimulate interest in research work of a nature that will prove both easy and enjoyable, and indirectly to gain material of value for its own pages. Any manuscript that we print will go to the credit of anyone trying for a place on Next Year's Board.

A. H. Woollcott, Editor.

To the Editor of LIFE:

Each year as Washington's Birthday approaches we are confronted with the problem of securing a respectable audience on a holiday for a lecture of doubtful possibilities. I think this is none too early for the suggestion of a plan that I feel sure will solve our trouble if given a trial.

My plan has been suggested by the custom in Wesleyan, and some other colleges.

Why could we not have, as a regular and official college function, a Washington's Birthday dinner? Let the steward of Commons Hall provide a respectable course dinner and charge a dollar or two for tickets. After the dinner, have the usual imported speaker with his patriotic address, perhaps somewhat shorter than has been the custom, then a short speech or two from nearer home in a lighter vein, and a few songs.

I do not mean to suggest anything like the football smoker or such college dinners as we had before the Rochester game this year. My idea is a real college function that would appeal to students, faculty and the near-by alumni. A good dinner to appeal to the stomach. A speech for the intellect, one or two for the wit, Prof. Ward is always good for one. And then some songs.

UNION CROSS-COUNTRY

As announced last week, a cross-country run will be held this afternoon with Union. The course is planned to cover about 4 miles, the start being from the Yahnundahsis Club House at about 2:50. The finish will be in front of the Clinton House at 3:30 p. m. It is expected that the 2:45 car from Utica will follow the race and all are urged to be present. The distance will probably be covered in something less than half an hour.

Each team will be made up of four men and each man will receive as many points as he defeats runners. The team with the highest score will be awarded the race.

This is the first intercollegiate cross-country run held in this region. It promises to be fast and interesting. The least the College can do is to show its interest by its presence in force.

The date of the Sophomore Hop has been definitely fixed as November 18, a little more than two weeks distant. The place is Dobson's Hall on Oneida street in Utica, very near Oneida Square. Preparations for the dance are well under way so that an excellent dance is already assured. But all this is really in the nature of an experiment. The class of 1911 were rather chary of undertaking the risk of giving the dance, but were finally won over by the confidence of the committee in its success.

The argument has been brought forward that the College does not really want an underclassmen dance in the fall. This the committee absolutely refuses to believe. If only for the fact that the Sophomore Hop has become an established custom, the committee believes that every effort should be made to hold one. Customs are good things to have; we can't have too many of them and especially those that relate to the social side of College life.

Now it is distinctly up to the College to say that they want this dance and to say it with decided emphasis. This means the presence of every man who can possibly attend. This certainly includes the vast majority of the College. It is especially urged that as few as possible—in fact almost none—go to the dance "stag."

The committee has an obstinate faith in the certain success of the dance. They look to the College to strengthen and sustain that faith.

BASKETBALL

As soon as the Football season closes, Basketball practice will begin. Captain Wilson is expected back this week, and under his leadership the College looks forward to a successful season. We are certainly justified in expecting great results, for with the exception of Capt. Smith, who was out of the game part of last season, the entire Varsity five is in College. Captain Wilson, Roenke, Welch, '09; Sherwin, '10; Allen, '11; besides the Varsity Subs of last year, Conklin and Hopkins, '09, Getman and Nixon, '11. There are also many men of basketball experience and ability in the Freshman Class, among them: Eells, Reagin, and Wenigmann are spoken of favorably.

COLUMBUS CONFERENCE

The international student bible conference held in Columbus, O., during the latter part of last week was a success, in point of interest and attendance. It brought together from all over the country, men of great learning in Scriptual truth and of aggressive lives in religious work. Twelve hundred student and faculty delegates were in attendance, and among the special speakers were: John R. Mott, of New York; Robert E. Speer, of New York; President King, of Oberlin; President Falconer Litt. D., of Toronto University; Hon. J. A. Macdonald, editor of Toronto Globe; Prof. L. H. Miller, of Princeton University; Bishop William F. McDowell, of Chicago; and Booker T. Washington, of Tuskegee Institute.

McNair '10 was sent as delegate from Hamilton. He reports a remarkably enthusiastic, spiritual, and profitable convention. Something of the sore need of Bible Study in this College, can be seen in the light of the gains made by other Colleges during one year, that of 1907-08. A few of the institntions which we know best, show the following increase in attendance of Bible Study classes:

	1906-07.	1907-08
Cornell Univ.	330	742
Univ. of Toronto	152	950
Williams College.....	92	276
West Point.....	190	223
Yale Univ.....	550	800

THE CATALOG

The College Catalog for the current year has appeared on the Hill, and though in form it is much like those of former years, it shows several interesting changes.

The most striking feature is the frontispiece, an excellent double-page portrait of our Vice-President-elect (after next Tuesday), Hon. James S. Sherman, '78.

The faculty list shows Calvin Leslie Lewis and Horace Seeley Brown, in the places of Rev. Henry White and Richard Updike Sherman, respectively, while in the list of Trustees, Abel E. Blackmar fills the place of Charles H. Smyth, deceased.

It is a disappointment to find in the register that tho the Freshman class is larger by 20 men than that of last year, the total gain is but 8 men, making 186 in all.

As for the entrance requirements, it is good to see that equivalents will be accepted in Modern Languages—three years of either French or German being accepted in place of two years of one and one of the other.

It is important to note that, beginning with the Class of 1910, a full year of the Natural Sciences is required for a degree. Besides this, there are a few minor changes in the courses, tending chiefly to a more even distribution of the work.

COLGATE PROSPECTS.

The prospects for success against Colgate are largely problematical at this stage of the season; the only direct comparative scores at our disposal are those of Cornell, upon Colgate, and upon our own eleven. But the disparity of the teams may be much greater than this comparison indicates, for the Cornell team was two weeks older in training and experience when it defeated Colgate than in ours, the initial game of the Cornell season. Then, too, Cornell earned her nine points against Colgate by the hardest sort of football, and her heavy line was ripped open for consistent gains toward the close of the second half. Furthermore, Colgate has been holding ranked teams to a single touchdown while we have been losing to teams in our own class, and Colgate's score against Hobart argues ill for a light line of any but exceptional powers. Colgate's scores for the season are as fololws:

Colgate, 0.	Brown, 5.
Colgate, 34.	Hobart, 0.
Colgate, 0.	Cornell, 9.
Colgate, 0.	Army, 6.

Word comes from Providence that the Maroon eleven is heavy and evenly balanced, outweighing Brown, and losing only to a trick play after a gruelling argument. Colgate is playing much in the same style as last year, formation with heavy end interference, line-plunges and tricks from the punt formation.

But on the other hand it should be remembered that Hamilton has lost thus far from lack of concerted action and judgment, and thru no fault of nerve or ability in the individual players. Persistent tackling practice will remedy the shortcomings of the men in that line, while the necessary principles of assistance, interference and choice of play are being drubbed into the squad by Coach Pryor, De Angelis, of Dartmouth, Kelsey, '90, Sherman, '05, and Sicard, '06. The team has not yet found itself. The spur of early failures and the stimulus of "Colgate!" may well yield us a final victory which would more than compensate for all the rest of the season. Our chance to win is on open football, and our open plays of this season are the best we have ever used. Coach Pryor is confident that, with the needed organization, his line is capable of sustaining, thruout both halves, the punishing impact of the Colgate backfield. Furthermore, we are to play Colgate on our ground, and the week after their Syracuse game. There is no love lost between Syracuse and Colgate, and acrimonious contest with men who outplayed Princeton will not improve the chances of the Maroon for victory a week later.
